

Who's Behind Real World Magic

Scott Cantrell

In the past ten years, more than 1100 audiences have been engaged, inspired, educated, and entertained by Scott's dynamic, high-content, and customized presentations designed to produce powerful lasting results!

His goal is to empower his audiences to become more productive so they will achieve their professional and personal goals and dreams. Through his unique entertaining talents and easy-to-know stage presence, Scott is able to connect with the audience and then create memorable and unique visuals to drive home the key concepts and principles of his presentations.

Even at his young age, Scott has gathered a vast amount of experience while developing numerous presentations for corporate groups, colleges, and associations. His focus on the audience combined with his creativity in delivering essential keys to success and his youthful energy make him one of the most enjoyed speakers at the many events where he presents.

Scott likes to say he's so young that he doesn't know what's impossible.

"I have the unique opportunity to address key players across the country help show them that the word 'impossible' is often a very relative term."

-Scott Cantrell

Scott's states his primary goal is to bring More Focus, More Action, More Enthusiasm, & More Power to every group he is in front of.

Scott has been featured at numerous events across the southeast including functions for Mayfield Dairy Farms, Family Brands International, TN Christian Medical Center, Bosch-Rexroth, Honda, TN School Board Association, City of Scottsville, KY, Scottsville, KY Chamber of Commerce, McMinn County School System, TN Association of Student Councils, McMinn County Education Foundation, Young Harris College, Wampler's

Sausage, South Eastern Association of Magicians & Music City Magic in Nashville, TN to name a few.

He also enjoys staying busy with other fundraisers for organizations like the American Cancer Society, Habitat for Humanity, and the Arthritis Foundation.
